APATHY—For months Lever Moore of Palm Springs has been trying to promote a share-the-ride service between Los Angeles and Palm Springs. At his own expense he maintains a date book at his Los Angeles office. Village motorists, driving home from Los Angeles are urged to let him know when they are leaving. Those desiring rides are also asked to register there. So far there have been plenty seeking rides but only one motorist has indicated his departure time since gasoline rationing went into effect last December 1. That motorist was Albert Frey, local architect and on the day and hour he was leaving, it so happened no one wanted a ride. . . Mr. Moore thinks the share-the-ride idea should be made official and suggests it become a part of the Civilian Defense council activities.

NOW WE KNOW—Proof that General Sherman was correct in his estimate of war keeps piling up. From this week on, I am carrying a deeper and more violent grudge against Schickelgruber and his gang. For No. 3 has gone to war. If you don't know what No. 3 is, you're missing something. No. 3 is two enchiladas, beans, salad and that good hot sauce that Marcus Caro puts out at his cafe. Marcus is going to war this week and when he goes, so does No. 3 for no one else can concoct it as he can. Sure, Nos. 1, 2 and 4 on the menu will also go to war but that's some other person's worry. I hope they give Hitler the one, two quickly so that I can get three again. . . Said a fresh young thing at the p. o. yesterday—"The Desert Sun just a week? My goodness, with a name like that it should come out every day."

PERSONAL—Two names with which I have trouble—I always want to write it "Walter Lippman" instead of "William" and "Wills Hays" instead of Chaplain Frank Hayes—and sometimes I do. . . James Campbell is still a bit flustered. Tennis teacher at the USO, he had the thrill of going in some brick sets with Shirley Temple on the Desert Inn courts the other day. When they finished SHE thanked HIM for the privilege. . . "Next Sunday," said the Village crab, "is Easter. That's one day women use their heads."

Councilman Boyd Resigns as Head Of Finance Board

Councilman Philip L. Boyd, chairman of the finance committee of the city council, Wednesday night tendered his resignation from the latter position, declaring that he would not be able to give it the proper attention during the coming months. Mayor Frank V. Shannon said that, providing there was no objections from councilmen, he would appoint himself to the post. All councilmen were agreeable and the mayor will serve at the head of the important finance committee this summer.

Brush Fire Subdued After Fisk Battle

Fire which broke out in brush-covered territory about an eighth of a mile back of the Dill Lumber company at 5:35 p. m. Monday was subdued by fire Chief Bill Leonasio after a brief but spirited fight. Approximately 900 feet of hose was laid to put water on the blaze. Two acres were blackened by the blaze. It was the first alarm here since Feb. 20.

Village to Greet Easter Dawn With Impressive Services From Hillside

When the sun peeps over the eastern horizon next Sunday morning at ten minutes past 6 o'clock, trumpets will resound from the hillside back of Palm Springs and a flock of white pigeons will be released, heralding the dawn of another Easter. Dr. J. R. Macartney, pastor of the Community church, which annually sponsors the local Easter Sunrise service, said that he believed the largest congregation in the 30-year history of the inspiring event would be present

USO Opens New Branch Office Here

Increased Dance Recreation for Soldiers Is Aim

In the hopes of increasing co-ed entertainment for men throughout the desert, the Los Angeles USO Mobile Service last week opened a new office in Palm Springs, which, under the directorship of Mrs. Marguerite Van Derwerker, will be the headquarters of the "Sun and Sand Carnival."

The primary aim of the new USO Mobile unit will be to extend and expand the present program of bringing bus-loads of girls from desert towns and outlying communities of Los Angeles to men in the desert area.

EXPERIENCED WORKER

Mrs. Van Derwerker will draw not only upon the experiences of the Desert Battalion, a Los Angeles organization, headed by Mrs. Dorothy Wilkinson, which has been coming down to the desert for almost a year, but also upon her own experiences as director of both the Long Beach and Santa Ana USO clubs.

Plans are for a combined effort between the two desert organizations to maintain a running schedule of dances and recreation every weekend at some army camp or USO club on the desert. Mrs. Van Derwerker is being assisted by Miss Gail Sollender, office executive.

PLAN CO-OPERATION

The relationship between the USO Mobile Service unit and the local USO group, at present headed by Mrs. James H. O'Reilly, will be mainly to assist them in co-ed programs, by supplementing local groups of girls with outside USO girls when the need arises.

As soon as the anticipated arrival of the professional USO director is a reality, all local USO club programs will be handled entirely through that office. Mrs. Van Derwerker will be on hand only when outside girls have been called in. At the time that the new director takes over, the Palm Springs USO will be made a national designation by the National Board of the USO, such as Banning, Indio and Coachella. Trend Is Changing; Popular Hostelry Open All Summer

Indicating the changing trend in Palm Springs was the announcement Wednesday of this week by Harold Maundrell, manager of the Colonial House, 572 North Indian avenue, that that popular hostelry would remain open all summer for the first time in its history.

Mr. Maundrell said that the hotel would carry on as in winter time with Ruby and his violin, Connie Barleau and the orchestra providing entertainment every night except Mondays.

New Bermuda grass has been planted in the patio around the pool to afford a green spot throughout the summer months.

Mr. Maundrell, who has in other years managed the Cal-Neva lodge on Lake Tahoe, said that resort would not open this year as it depended entirely on the automobile trade.

Bond Drive Still Short By $25,000

Total Purchases Up to Wednesday Noon—$182,297.04

With the time growing short, Palm Springs still had $25,106.96 to go in its drive to reach the $207,404 quota set for this city in the nation's Second War Loan.

Wednesday total bond sales of all classes had reached $182,297.04. Harold E. Murphy, in charge of the drive, reported, Mr. Murphy was appointed chairman of the Palm Springs participation in the national war loan by Harold Hicks, chairman of the war savings committee here.

WEDNESDAY BIG DAY

Wednesday was a big day in the drive here. It was Adolph Hitler's birthday and Villagers crowded the Bank of America and the Post Office to provide funds to send him plenty of birthday presents in the shape of tanks, guns, airplanes and other like tokens of their feelings toward him.

To date, most of the purchases have been in large blocks. The "little fellow" who buys the $25, $50 and $100 bonds has not yet been in force, Henry Weinberger, a member of the campaign committee and very active in the drive, said.

PLAYS ACTIVE PART

He reported that Bullocks Palm Springs store had made the largest single contribution to date.

Weinberger, who played an active role in the February "Buy a Bomber" drive, is doing the same in this campaign. He has solicited and obtained for the $207,404 campaign here, $152,500 in bond purchases he said Thursday.

It's a Racket But You'll Enjoy It If You Help It Along

Now that the boy has gone away to school, or perhaps, he is in the army, himself, how about that old tennis racket he left behind?

Up at the USO, some of the soldiers are trying to play tennis with rackets which have holes in them big enough to let a softball through. Material to repair the rackets is unobtainable.

So the USO is on the lookout for used rackets for the boys. If you have any kicking around the house, let them know.

One Year Service Stripes Awarded Motor Corps Group

Mrs. Frank Cutler, chairman of the Motor Corps of the Palm Springs branch of the Red Cross, was hostess at a tea for members of the corps on Tuesday, April 20.

A feature of the tea was the award of one-year service stripes to those who had earned them. Service stripes went to Rose Dugan, Muriel Fulton, Dr. Georgiana Raymond, Mrs. Maurice H. Libott, Mrs. Donald Lockett and Mrs. Cutler.

Another Series of Blue Stamps Will Be Valid Saturday

How are your April blue stamps holding out?

Cheer up. May blue stamps are valid tomorrow. Between April 24 and May 1 both the April D, E, and F stamps and the May G, H and I stamps will be valid. The D, E and F stamps expire April 30.

A similar overlap period was provided last month when both the A, B and C stamps and the D, E and F stamps were good between March 25 and April 1.

Coffee stamp No. 23 becomes effective on Monday.

Head of Legion Picnic Supper Auxiliary Here For Soldiers Is On Brief Visit Great Success

Mrs. Alfred J. Mathebat, national president of the American Legion Auxiliary was in Palm Springs last week with her husband, vacationing at The Desert Inn, after her coast-to-coast tour to recruit nurses for the armed services, take notes on national trends of the war effort and speak on post-war planning.

Mrs. Mathebat visited twenty states on the tour and will resume her trip which will cover twenty-eight states and Montreal, Canada. Since September when she took office, Mrs. Mathebat has been home (Alameda, Calif.) only eight days.

SIX-MONTH TOUR

When she resumed travel after a brief vacation at The Desert Inn she expects to be away from California until next September.

Mrs. Mathebat will continue to recruit nurses until the government has established a Victory Nurse Corps for recruiting.

"America is standing at the cross roads and must choose the plan that will shape the future of this country," she said. "Democracy is a challenge and a responsibility. We must decide if we are going to meet that challenge—do our own thinking or let someone else do it for us."

Dilworth Introduces Tramway Measure

Revised Bill to Create Palm Springs Winter Park Authority Presented This Week; Support of Measure Is Pledged

Action on the Palm Springs Aerial Tramway was speeded this week with introduction of the revised tramway bill in the assembly Tuesday of this week by Assemblyman Nelson Dilworth of Hemet. Dilworth's action followed unanimous action of Riverside county supervisors Monday in endorsing the measure and strongly urging its support. The bill is entitled "an act creating the Palm Springs Winter Park authority and prescribing the powers and duties thereof."

The measure was referred to the governmental efficiency and economy committee of the assembly.

LONGEST IN WORLD

Under the provisions of the measure, a $3,000,000 aerial tramway, the longest and most spectacular passenger service of its kind, will be erected as a post-war project. The Authority would be empowered to issue revenue bonds for the project.

Messages urging passage of the measure are already going to Assemblyman Dilworth in Sacramento and the bill seems destined to have smooth sailing this time. Another tram bill, passed two years ago, was vetoed by Gov. C. L. Olson when a difference of opinion over its provisions arose.

SUPPORT PLEDGED

These differences have been ironed out and unanimous support has been promised by all parts of the county. The final conference which paved the way for complete accord was held here a week ago Sunday at the Desert Inn and lasted six hours. The conference ended two months negotiations and conferences between John R. E. Chaffey, secretary of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce and various factions. Mr. Chaffey was also instrumental in obtaining the unanimous support of county supervisors when he appeared before that body last Monday.

FAME EXPECTED

It is believed that the tramway will quickly become one of the most famous in the world. In the winter it would provide an easy and practical way to transport snow-sport enthusiasts from the sunshine of Palm Springs to the snow-clad slopes of San

Construction Begun On Dormitories for Women War Workers

Work on construction of two dormitory buildings on the Torney General Hospital grounds fronting on Paseo El Mirador was well under way today. Great piles of lumber are on the grounds and excavations for foundations have been dug.

The new buildings will house living quarters for 150 women war workers. O. L. Carpenter of San Diego, was awarded the contract for their construction by the federal public housing authority with a bid of $61,672.

Ground was broken for this first FPHA project in Palm Springs last weekend. It is designed to alleviate the housing shortage for women civilian personnel at army posts.

Flushing Sidewalks to Come Under Ban Here in May; New Ordinance Is Adopted

Flushing of sidewalks with water under pressure will end here late in May under provisions of Ordinance No. 131, adopted unanimously by city council Wednesday night.

Only one protest was heard at the council session against the ordinance. Councilman Eugene E. Theriault said that he had heard many comments on the measure from merchants and declared that many of them had said that flushing off the walks was the only way to clean them. He declared that one of the merchants was in the audience and called upon

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Murphy this week purchased the Sunhaven apartments in Cathedral City from Grace A. Hubler, who built them a few years ago. The property is located at the corner of Palm Tighway and Dunes road.

Carry a Spare If You Want to Keep on Moving

Thirty days from date—it's going to be too bad if you suddenly find yourself with a flat tire and have no spare with you.

The ordinance was drawn to protect pavements from being gouged by the rims.

Lykken Will Head Chamber Of Commerce

Carl G. Lykken, head of Lykken's department store and prominent in civic circles here, will serve as president of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce for the coming year as result of an organization meeting of the newly elected directorate of that body, held last Friday at the Village Coffee Shop.

Mr. Lykken succeeds Harris R. Posey, manager of Bullock's Palm Springs store, president for the past season.

Larry Schultz, manager of Desmond's Palm Springs store, was elected first vice-president for new term and Francis Crocker, chief of the California Electric Power corporation, was elected second vice-president.

Cecil Isenagel, manager of the Tanner Motor Livery, was elected secretary and Fred Ingram, manager of the Palm Springs branch of the Bank of America, treasurer.

Appointment of committee chairmen and plans for the coming year were discussed.

Ordinance Adopted

Ordinance No. 133, which repeals two old fire zone ordinances and establishes new fire districts to conform with the zoning law, (Ordinance No. 75) was adopted by city council Wednesday night. It will be in effect in 30 days.

FERRYING DIVISION NEWS NOTES

459th Base Headquarters and Air Base Squadron, Ferrying Division, Air Transport Command, Municipal Airport, Palm Springs

For several months now we've often tucked away in what we egotistically call our mental filing cabinet the observation that "what a terrific flying block" that T/Sgt. Ben Harstein could throw if he were a football player. A soft-spoken Texan, big and burly Harstein also fits nearly to perfection the public's conception of a rugged, efficient army sergeant.

Well, from now on, soldiers and John Public, you can call your shots out loud—and very loud—when you think of Sgt. Harstein.

He did throw "a terrific flying block" and because of it another sergeant, Irving Tucker of Little Rock, Ark., today is lying in an army hospital on the road to recovery.

Sgt. Tucker was spinning the propeller of an army plane. As the plane's motor took hold, Sgt. Tucker apparently lost his balance and fell into the blade. He was quickly knocked back and was in a losing semi-conscious struggle to avoid falling into the blade again.

Riding a fast motor scooted a short distance away was Sgt. Harstein, who observed the start of the accident. Harstein gunned his vehicle to the hilt and went full speed at Tucker. As he approached the helpless soldier, Harstein leaped through the air from his charging scooter and with a perfect football block bore Tucker's body to the ground and out of range of the deadly prop.

In a matter of seconds, Sgt. Harstein not only made a decision that endangered his own life, but timed his actions and directions perfectly. We think Sgt. Harstein is more than a conception of a rugged, efficient army sergeant. We think he IS IT!

MEATLESS IS RIGHT

Going from the sublime to the silly we like Pvt. Arnold Schwartz' definition of meatless Tuesday—Pvt. Hank McCune. McCune is a tall character who could get on a pair of balancing scales sopping wet and still lose the decision to a bamboo fishing pole on the other scale.

MORE PROMOTIONS

Although you may wonder if promotions ever cease (and we hope they won't) at our base, there were 10 more this week for enlisted men. New staff sergeants are Arthur J. Podway, who is the capable president of the Non-Com's Mess, and Edward E. Tollison. New sergeants are Harold G. Botcher, Ernest E. Meadows, Edward R. Meyer and Lucian Ogrobias.

Advanced to corporals were Gordon E. Feekings, widely-known Villager, Cleve E. Blair, William R. French and Ralph C. Taylor.

Warrant Officer (jg) Patrick C. Orum reported as base weather officer. We wonder if he can do anything about these winds. The prospective summer heat we are resigned to.

PROP WASH

Pfc. Irving Arluck entertained the Lions Club with his tricky piano playing. . . M/Sgt. Doug Reiter is a man who gets around socially. . . his fair eye is the envy of his mates. . . three cheers and all that sort of laudatory guff to Pvs. Herbie Pilato and Rocky Zaccaria for the competent way in which they perform as "resident managers" of the Non-Coms' club. . . Pfc. Robert Sohr is back from Milwaukee, Wis., where he attended the annual business meeting of the American Bowling Congress. . . he's the national executive director from the Southern California area of the Congress. . . S/Sgt. Harold Francis O'Grady is out of the hospital. . . his leg scraped up an acquaintance with a cactus sliver and it was almost an infectious one.

HITS NEW LOW

Pvt. Maurice Prince, the baby-faced Texan, hit a new low or something in Hollywood the other day. A WAAC corporal, believe it or not, pulled her rank on him! Up to now the cherubic Lone Star stater refuses to reveal the reason, except that he obeyed.

BAD FOR MORALE

Incidentally, the Hollywood Canteen won't let WAACs in to dance, which we think is damaging to morale, especially ours, because we had a pretty one to dance with.

LUCKY STIFF!

Fellows, if you want to shake the hand of the soldier who can kiss Rita Hayworth any time he wants to, and she gets mad if he doesn't, then go around and grab the paw of Sgt. Eduardo Cansino, Jr. You can find him in the base weather office.

He knows the lovely film star very well—as a matter of fact, has known her for many years.

He's her brother. Sgt. Cansino has been in the air force two years and is a year younger than his famous sister. His younger brother is with the armored infantry in the east.

He hopes to have his sister down at our post for a show when she finishes her current starring picture, "Cover Girl," for Columbia studios.

High Tribute Paid Torney and Chief By Noted Visitor

Col. Harvard O. Moore, surgeon for the Ninth Service Command, stationed at Fort Douglas, Utah, arrived in Palm Springs Tuesday of this week on an inspection trip of army hospitals on the southern circuit. He spent two days at Torney General Hospital and paid high tribute to the officers and personnel of the local establishment.

Col. Moore said he was very much pleased with the results of his inspection tour. Army hospitals are in fine shape and the men are getting just the best care humanly possible. Army hospitals are as well equipped as the best civilian hospitals and all of the services of the latter plus the latest discoveries of research workers are available for the men.

Col. Moore had high praise for Col. A. B. Jones, commanding officer at Torney General Hospital.

"He is one of the outstanding men of the Army Medical Corps," he said.

"Coat Hangers for Soldiers" Appeal Highly Successful

Kenneth DuBose, owner and operator of the Thrifty 5-10-25 and the Village 5-10, who last week offered his two stores as clearing houses to aid servicemen in getting coat-hangers, today said:

"Thanks a million!" For Villagers ransacked closets and garages and came in with many coat hangers. These DuBose gave to servicemen free of charge.

DuBose last week advertised this service, saying:

"Coat hangers are impossible to get now—and you, can't expect soldiers to hang their clothing on a nail and get by inspection. Bring in your coat hangers and I'll see that the service men get them without cost to them.

"But don't stop now—we can still use 'em," he said.

Sheptenko Training At Maryland Post

Peter B. Sheptenko, prominent Palm Springs real estate broker, is now stationed at Aberdeen, Md., according to word received by Mrs. Sheptenko.

Mr. Sheptenko left the Village two weeks ago for Fort MacArthur where he was inducted into the army.

He is a candidate for officers' training.

The deed was filed by the Riverside Title company.

He tarried here with the Santa Ana Air base baseball team which was en route to New Mexico for a game.

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS

Cpl. Bud Proctor of our Post has advertised for an accordion teacher. We refer him to Pfc. Arluck, who squeezes an accordion with the same finesse with which he entices those solid licks out of a piano.

And speaking of accordion players, we would be very happy to take double pains to spell the name correctly of any man who will introduce us to that enchanting creature who plays the accordion at the Chi Chi.

ARGUMENT!

It has been reported, none too reliably, that Esquire magazine has penned a fashion note to Lts. Anthony Luchsinger and Harold Emigh regarding the customary attire for swimming. Rumor has it that the men who decree what to wear don't see eye to eye with the lieutenants on the clothing they did wear.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Irish are vacationing at the Desert Inn with their daughter, Mrs. Ethel Coplan.

"Dugout"

By the Legion Observer

Service at the Dugout is limited not only to those who serve as Hostesses, but also to a group of silent workers behind the lines, so this week we say "Hats Off" to OUR DONORS.

These are the people who work faithfully and willingly and are never too busy or tired to bring in a box of cookies, a pan of gingerbread, a few dozen doughnuts, or a cake, to give our boys a taste of something like "Mother used to make."

These ladies come in quietly and as quietly steal away, but if they could hear the "OHS" and "AHS" and "Boy, this is good," they would feel amply repaid for their trouble.

WILL BE MISSED

It is only fair to mention a few, who have been very faithful through the season, and will be missed as the season closes.

Mrs. Bessie Goldberg has never missed a week to bring in her pan of cookies, or homemade candies.

Mrs. Harry Klonick has been most generous with cookies and home-made donuts.

Mrs. Tilghman not only has brought dozens of cookies, but home-made pies as well.

Mr. and Mrs. Wurlitzer for their generous donations of all kinds.

HARD TO GET

Cookies are hard to buy and so, in order to keep our cookie jars full, and the morale of our boys high, we must not let them down. Whether you can spare one dozen or ten dozen cookies, bring them in; they will be greatly appreciated.

We also wish to mention a few other services that are seldom known but are necessary cogs to keep our "Dugout" wheel running smoothly.

Mrs. P. M. Swart, who launders our towels each week.

Jack Girard, Charles Foy and Ed Cuneo who picked many sacks of oranges and brought them to the Dugout.

COWBOY MUSIC

Harold Hansen, who has used his time and skill whenever anything has needed repairing, and last but not least, Rex Stuart, cowboy movie star, who is always happy to contribute his time and talent singing and playing for the boys.

Many friends have brought magazines and books and space does not allow us to mention each one separately, but to every one who has donated anything at all, we say "Thank You Very Much."

MARCH HONOR ROLL

Following is our list of donors for March:

Mrs. Madeline Newhouse, Peggy Guthrie, Pearl Cline, Ernest Alschuler, Harry Klonick, Grace Wurlitzer, Harry Epstein, Cordray, James Brown, T. R. Davis, Earl Hoover, Bessie Goldberg, William T. Schwartz, Jack Girard, John C. Snyder, Hazel Hansen, Esther Martins, Bunny Cuneo, R. H. Tilghman, Harrison Leussler, Dora L. Haffaker and Mabel Swart.

TORNEY GENERAL HOSPITAL EVENTS

News of the Enlisted Men of the Medical and Quartermaster Detachments at Torney Army General Hospital, Palm Springs
By Pfc. Arnold W. Bauer

Sunday, April 20, Torney General Hospital was treated to three USO shows. It was the first time any USO show trod the boards of the Recreation Hall. And what a show! Two hours of the sort of entertainment fellows who had seen active service would want. The kind that had the good ol' belly laughs. The performers sensed their audience' response and really went to town.

The units were known as Nos. 54, 55 and 56. The first one to perform was unit No. 55, introduced by Pfc. Summers and MC'd by breezy Al Reisman, who with Ann Coolidge, violinist; Mary Craig, acrobatic dancer; and ballad singer Catherine DeHaven, started the evening's fun. The unit closed their portion of the show with a screwball dance, "The Streets of Tokio."

Ted Waldman, of harmonica fame, MC'd unit No. 54, Jean Verdugo and her accordion, blues singer Kay Valerie, and the dance team of White and Manning romped and frolicked through their numbers, ending with a boop-sa-daisy dance which left the audience in the aisles.

The last portion of the show, No. 56, was MC'd by Al Mardo and included red headed Mary Lee, guitarist Johnny Collins, torch singer Peggy Bowen and Peggy "Watch my hands" Hall.

The three units were going three different ways the next morning, making their circuit of desert posts. They left on their trek, knowing they had given more than just a few laughs—they had given a bit of sparkle and gaiety back to the boys who have and still are doing so much for them.

SOFT BALL GOING STRONG

Tuesday evening, April 13th the Torney General Softballers extended their consecutive victory string to four games by virtue of their 9 to 12 victory over the 22nd General Hospital organization. Pitcher "Long John" Leslie of the Torneyites retired 13 men via the strikeout route as he turned in another masterful performance. By keeping the hits well scattered, he held the 22nd General sluggers under control throughout the contest.

BANG UP BATTLE

Last Thursday evening the Torney officers and enlisted men crossed bats in a practice game which turned out to be a bang up affair. After 7 innings, the enlisted men had the very slim advantage, 7 to 6. Lt. Rutter twirled a splendid game for the losers while "Long John" gave his usual exhibition of having his own way in the clutches.

THE KEGGLERS' ROUND

The first round of the enlisted men's bowling league was completed Friday night with the following results: Registrars 4, Hqs. 0; Personnel 2, Dental Clinic 2; Receiving 2, MP's 2; Supply 2, 1st Sgts. 2. We now find the Personnel Office out in front with 17 won and 11 lost, closely followed by the Registrars, Supply and Dental Clinic, all having won and lost 12. Hqs., Receiving and "Birdog" McNabb's MP outfit are all tied for third, with 13 won and 15 lost. "Last but not least," quoting Sgt. Gilmore, comes the 1st Sgt's Office with a record of 8 won and 20 lost. Sgt. Graffice, keggling for Personnel, copped high single game with 215 pins, and also toppled 547 for high three.

Father of County Pediatrician Called

Funeral services were held at Acheson and Graham funeral chapel in Riverside last week for Edward E. Van Cleve of that city, father of Dr. Mildred Van Cleve, county pediatrician, who is well known to numerous Palm Springs women and children. Dr. Van Cleve has been conducting prenatal and child health clinics at the health center here for many months.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray Honored by Club At Farewell Party

Members of the "Sew What" sewing circle gave a pot-luck supper Sunday evening in the garden of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Gray, and had as their guests their husbands and their children.

The party was also a farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Gray.

After the supper, Mrs. Gray opened gifts given her by her "sewing sisters" and the rest of the evening was spent in talking and enjoying the spring air and the moonlight.

Women's Club Closing Program Proves Biggest and Best Event of the Season

BY MARTHA FORWARD

Just as a small child saves the biggest and best until last, the program committee of the Palm Springs Woman's Club saved one of their biggest and best programs, "A Celebrity Tea," as a grand finale to a season of world commentators, poetry and drama—not to mention those within our own environs of the service contingents of the United States Army who contributed of their time and talents, knitting together their efforts with those of the community towards an absolute victory.

Reports of the club's work for the year, under the leadership of Mrs. Ralph Clock, the retiring president, prove unequivocally that the Woman's Club can be, and has been, a dominant force towards an all-out effort for winning the world conflict through its various branches of the Red Cross, Camp and Hospital Service, Canteens, Aircraft Warning Service, First Aid, Grey Ladies, Rationing Board and Welfare and Friendly Aid.

HEAR WINNING TALK

Bill Gilbert, local youth, who won in the local and district zone speech contest sponsored by the Lions Club, was asked to give his speech, "After the War—What?" His perfect enunciation, poise and fluidity of speech, proclaim for him prodigious ability as an orator. His plan, for a victorious peace founded on community of power—not a balance of power—with America as the guiding light, organizing and maintaining the peace of the world, is sane and convincing and the product of a mind matured far beyond his years.

Ruth Cornell Fuller, interpreter of world literature, books, plays and poetry, belied her modern philosophy as she appeared on the stage in gown of fuchsia taffeta, looking for all the world as though she had stepped out from an old Godey print with her tiny Godey hat, bedecked with rose, topping the ensemble.

DELIGHTFUL PROGRAM

The easy informality with which she presented her co-artists, Henrik de Boer, tenor, Risser Patty, his maestro and accompanist, and Anthony Euwer, poet and artist, transformed the club lounge into a salon.

Henrik de Boer, youthful, tall and blond, sang for his first group a "Folk Song" of his native Holland, the old negro spiritual, "Were You There," and that old favorite, "I'll Take You Home Again, Kathleen." He sang with a sad wistfulness that brought his songs close to the hearts of his audience. His second group gave range for his rich, clear tones and astonishing volume as he sang "The Dream," by Massenet, and "Morning," by Oley Speaks.

Mrs. Fuller's review of Louis Bromfield's best seller, "Mrs. Parkington," made this lady a living, breathing personality as she interpolated with her own clever ad libs.

NEVER STOPPED

Mrs. Parkington, 85 years young, a matriarch in her own family of children and grandchildren, none of whom she could endure more than once each year, with the exception of her granddaughter, Janie, the one hope of the family, when they would gather around her table and fireside—usually at Christmas time—and distracted this young, old lady with their petty bickerings until she would have no more of them.

"Mrs. Parkington didn't grow old," philosophized Mrs. Fuller, "for you just get old when you stop growing, and she never stopped growing. Turning your back on something you dislike doesn't destroy it—you must face it and replace it with something better, and that's just what Mrs. Parkington did."

PERFECT LIMERICK

In Webster's International Dictionary is printed a five-line limerick which they say is the perfect example of the 5 anapestic lines, of which the first, second and fifth lines are three-stress and rime, and the third and fourth lines are two-stress and rime, and it was written by one Anthony Euwer, who was there in person to give more of his nonsense verse and some that were close to the heart. This is the way it goes:

As a beauty I'm not a great star,
Others are handsomer far,
But my face, I don't mind it,
Because I'm behind it,
It's the folks in the front that I jar.

PERPETUATE PALMS

Mr. Euwer has three angles to his poems—he writes them—he talks them—and he illustrates them. He has written eight books of rime, the most popular among them being "By Scarlet Torch and Blade," and "Friedrich's." His absorbing poetical hobby is poems about trees, three of which he read, "The Yucca," "The Pepper Tree," and "Palm Canyon," written about our own famous palms.

His "The Limerotomy" was printed serially in Colliers Magazine. His bookplates are each a masterpiece of original design and artistic execution. His "Dogs" and "Cats" had his audience in an uproar.

MRS. LIPPMAN TAKES OVER

After this delightful afternoon of music, drama and poetry, Mrs. Ralph Clock, the club's retiring president, presented the president's gavel to Mrs. William A. Lippman, who will be president during the next calendar of activities, and who graciously accepted and adjourned the meetings until the summer is ended and extended an invitation to tea which was served al fresco in the patio.

Mrs. Philip Boyd was assisted in serving by Mrs. Bradstreet Miller, Mrs. Roy Colegate, Mrs. John Sprague, Mrs. J. Grant Fry, Mrs. Harry Hanbury, Mrs. Merrill Crockett and Mrs. Henry Clock, with Mrs. Leslie Williams, Mrs. Charles Burkett, Mrs. Levering Moore and Mrs. Harry Hanbury receiving.

An Open Letter to Palm Springs People

TO THE RESIDENTS OF PALM SPRINGS:

When you awaken to the thrill of Easter Morning in Palm Springs perhaps you would like to share your happiness and bring joy to some one who is a stranger in the Village. By stranger, I mean the enlisted man. From personal experience I have found the enlisted man extremely grateful and excited at the thought of being with home folks and getting an opportunity to see Palm Springs by motor car with a stop over for refreshments at some one's home.

A glass of cold punch, or fruit juice, certain sandwiches and cookies are on the unrationed list. The cost would be nominal and the happiness and good feeling created, would be boundless.

May I suggest to those who read this article that they cruise over to the USO or down town and invite our noble fighting men to participate in our western hospitality?

ANITA WALTON.

P. S.—If you have a camera handy, load it up and take it along. The boys would be happy to send such pictures home.

Highly Interesting Story of Amazon Country Told Lions Club by Cpl. Simms

Corporal Ashley Simms, connected with Torney General Hospital, gave members of the Palm Springs Lions club a new conception of a little known country, half as large as the United States and rich beyond imagination in natural resources—the Amazon country which stretches from headwaters 100 miles from the Pacific ocean, across the South American continent to empty into the Atlantic, 4000 miles away.

Russia, he said, has practically eliminated the frontier in Siberia, the war is taking the mystery out of Africa, in Australia, the frontier has been pushed back to where it is worth nothing to go on. But the Amazon country has been barely touched and offers the world's last frontier.

TREMENDOUS REWARDS

The rewards, when once nature and the jungle is conquered, will be tremendous, Corporal Simms said.

He described the history of the Amazon and its discovery in 1500 when explorers found themselves sailing in fresh water although no land was in sight. In 1540 the remnants of an ill-fated expedition, which had started up from the Pacific coast, across the Andes, set sail on a raft on a branch of the Amazon and many months later emerged at the mouth on the Atlantic coast after a 4,000-mile trip. It was on this trip that a priest, with the crew, wrote of battles with the Indians and remarked that their women "fought like Amazons." Three hundred years later, this name was given to the river.

DROP IS SLIGHT

The Amazon, Corporal Simms said, is five times larger than the Mississippi. Hundreds of miles from its Atlantic mouth and relatively close to the Pacific, it could float an ocean-going steamship. In 2400 miles it drops but 400 feet and as a result its flow is sluggish, not more than three miles an hour. There are no falls on the Amazon, itself, but there are many rapids on the tributaries.

One of the reasons the Amazon country has remained undeveloped is because most of the South American nations are looking seaward instead of to the interior. Another is the vast job of battling the jungle. He said there are only two seasons there—wet and wetter. While the thermometer seldom tops 100, it is extremely humid. Many diseases abound as a result.

DESCRIBES RUBBER

Corporal Simms spoke of the rubber resources of the Amazon. He indicated most people had a false idea of it and declared that at its peak year, the rubber output was barely one-tenth of what the United States needs this year alone. He spoke of miracle cities in the jungles and told many odd and interesting stories of the Amazon.

Corporal Simms paid an interesting tribute to aviation in the course of his talk. He said that prior to commercial air lines, tobacco on the eastern slope of the Andes was sent down the Amazon 4000 miles to the Atlantic, shipped to Liverpool, thence to New York and then by steamer around the horn to the Pacific coast of Peru, a journey of several months. Now airplanes take similar cargos to the same destination in an hour's time.

Dr. E. E. Oertel, principal of Palm Springs high school, was chairman of the day and President Clarence Hyde presided.

City Advertises For Bids on New Street Equipment

On motion of Councilman Frank Cutler, council Wednesday night authorized City Attorney Roy W. Colegate to prepare a resolution advertising for bids for a skip-loader for use of the department of public works.

City Manager Arthur E. Bailey read recommendations from Ray Sorum, director of public works, on the advisability of acquiring such equipment. It was pointed out that the machine, which has a life of about 25 years, would probably pay for itself in labor saving and rentals within three to five years.

THE 2ND WAR LOAN DRIVE IS ON!

Winner Take All!

There is one stark and simple fact about war which you had better get straight...and quickly, too
THERE IS NO SECOND PLACE IN A WAR—IT'S EITHER WIN OR LOSE!

This war is being fought for tremendous stakes . . .

. . . for your life and your liberty.
. . . for your church and your children.
. . . for your freedom and your future.

And it's WINNER TAKE ALL. Don't forget that for a minute.

The winner will dictate whether tomorrow you shall be a free citizen of a free world, or a helpless serf to a "master race."

The winner will dictate whether you shall live and prosper under the Four Freedoms, or toil hopelessly in the darkness of a "New Order."

The winner will dictate . . . because the winner takes all.

The winner takes all. All you own, all you hold dear.

The winner is being decided right now . . . today . . . this very minute . . . on battlefields all over the world. Will you stand idly by . . . or throw all your weight on our side?

The weight of mighty tanks and planes. The weight of thousands of guns and millions of shells. The weight of billions of dollars . . . 13 billions which your country asks you to lend during this Drive.

Your country wants to borrow every idle dollar you have—every dollar except what you need for the barest necessities of life.

You'll have to give up some luxury or comfort which was dear to your heart. You'll have to postpone some pleasure which you had been eagerly anticipating.

But what of it?

Your sons and brothers and husbands are dying out there . . . fighting your fight. Surely it is no sacrifice to lend your dollars while they are giving their lives.

They need your help. They need the weapons your money can buy. If one of the War Loan volunteers calls on you . . . greet him with open pocket-book. Remember, Uncle Sam's goal is 13 billion dollars in April.

Don't wait to be asked. Go to your nearest bank, investment dealer, broker, Post Office or issuing agency and lay your money on the line. Remember, it's an investment you're making—an investment that pays a good return and insures a happier future for you and your loved ones.

So lend up to the limit.

You'll sleep better for it.

Many Attend Palm Sunday Service at Community Church

Palm Sunday at the Community Church surpassed all previous records of attendance and contributions.

An overflow audience listened to a fine musical program and sermon by the pastor, Dr. Macartney, on "Jerusalem the Golden" and the many conquerors who have ridden into that famous city.

Moving pictures in color were taken of the entire Sunday School as they entered the sanctuary. Each child was wearing a bit of palm branch in commemoration of the festive Palm Sunday.

Flushing Walk

they can be kept clean. After years of experiments, we have found that it is impossible to clean the walks by simply sweeping them and use of a mop is almost out of the question," he said. "If it is a matter of allowing the streets to dry sufficiently to enable repairs to be made, we could declare a vacation on street washing until the repairs were made and adequate drains built."

CITES BAD FEATURES

Mayor Frank V. Shannon pointed out that from Amado road south, the accumulation of water from sidewalk washing formed a large pool at Arenas road, kept the streets so wet that repairs were impossible and prevented steps for adequate drainage.

He also pointed out that the pools formed breeding places for mosquitoes and that debris from the sidewalks to the north settled at the one corner. Often, too, work of the street cleaners was nullified as the flowing water scattered piles of debris, swept up and awaiting disposition by city waste department trucks.

NO WATER AT ALL

It was also pointed out that the measure prevented flooding streets from overflow irrigation water on private premises and prohibited washing cars in such a manner that the water flowed into the streets.

Councilman Philip L. Boyd brought up the question of responsibility if, after the flushing ban went into effect, the sidewalks were not swept or cleaned. City Attorney Roy W. Colegate declared that if the situation became a health menace the city had the power to act.

URGES TRIAL

Councilman Boyd then suggested that the ordinance be adopted and if it proved unworkable, it could be amended or repealed. He moved that reading of the measure the second time be waived. The motion carried.

Then Mayor Shannon asked for a motion for adoption of the measure. There was some hesitancy, then Councilman Therieau stepped into the breach and made the necessary motion. Councilman John Connell seconded.

On the roll call, the vote was unanimous.

New Tram Bill

Jacinto for skiing, tobogganing and other like sports.

The original bill provided for construction of hotels in the area but this has been deleted in the new bill which provides only for shelters for emergencies.

Members of the tramway committee of the Chamber of Commerce are Philip L. Boyd, Culver Nichols, Francis Crocker, who first proposed the tramway idea, Attorney Henry Lockwood, Earl Coffman, Thomas Lipps, Harris Posey, Carl Lykken and Raymond Cree.

SUPPORT URGED

Among telegrams sent to Assemblyman Dilworth this week was one from Carl Barkow, publisher of the Desert Sun, who with Francis Crocker, idly discussed the possibility of such a tramway ten years ago while gazing at the snow-clad slopes of San Jacinto. Mr. Barkow wired:

"Very anxious to have revised Palm Springs Tramway bill pass as it would mean much to future prosperity of entire county and open wilderness area to thousands who could not otherwise see it. Signed, Carl Barkow."

REVERT TO CITY

Upon retirement of the revenue bonds to be issued by the authority if the bill passes, title to the tramway and other properties would vest in the city of Palm Springs.

The tram would start at the 2,700-foot level in Chino canyon and rise to the 8,700-foot level in the snow area.

USO Opens

O'Reilly is awaiting the new director before she turns in her resignation. All volunteer groups who are remaining in town will continue their present duties.

IN CONSTANT TOUCH

Laurence Johnson, West Coast Representative of the Mobile Division, Los Angeles, is directly in charge of the "Sun and Sand Caravan." The Palm Springs office, located at 431 North Palm Canyon drive, will be in constant touch, not only with Mr. Johnson's office, but with the USO Mobile Service men and the Special Service Officers scattered throughout the desert.

As an additional service, the Palm Springs USO Mobile office is prepared to answer questions about Los Angeles in case men in uniform wish to know where to go and what to do when they are on leave.

CONFERENCE HELD

Last week USO officials met with Special Service Officers from the various military camps located in the desert area at the Desert Inn. Among those at the dinner party and meeting were Mr. Johnson, the host and chairman of the USO Mobile Unit, Miss Florence Boester, national representative of women's activities on the West coast; Mrs. Van Derwerker, director of women's activities of USO Mobile Service for desert area; Mrs. Wilkinson, Mrs. Alvin Brockway, president of the Officers and Cadets Club in Los Angeles; Miss Sollender, Major F. B. Brown, Major A. N. Marderos, Major C. L. Isenberg, Major W. C. Owen, Capt. T. J. Ashworth, Capt. J. A. Katalines, Lt. W. H. Chambliss, Lt. Berlon D. Dunn, Lt. H. M. Friedman and Lt. K. H. Guenther. The meeting was held to discuss plans for the Sun and Sand Caravan.

Members of the corps who will be graduated are Mrs. H. L. Hansen, Mrs. Ernest Garland, Mrs. H. Earl Hoover, Miss Gladys McClure, Mrs. Lloyd Simon, Miss Beatrice Nicoll, Mrs. J. Beatty McCullough, Mrs. Raymond V. Knowles, Mrs. Frank W. Camp, Mrs. Henry Weinberger, Mrs. C. C. Neel, Mrs. John L. Wheeler, Mrs. Irving Snyder and Mrs. Clarence A. Hyde. Col. A. B. Jones and other members of the medical staff have been invited to be present for graduation ceremony.

County Assessor And Aides Survey Local Valuations

Frank Burchfield, county assessor, Loren Kelsey, office deputy, and George P. Fraley, field deputy, visited Palm Springs and adjacent territory to check on various assessed valuations that had been protested.

Mr. Burchfield said that most protests resolve themselves into a desire to pay less taxes and are seldom backed by a free admission on what the property cost or what the owner would take for it.

However, he said, where an adjustment is warranted it is always made in time but the adjustment of land values in one parcel often involves the entire area and is far from a simple process.

its first assembly 129 years after the French revolution made a republic out of that nation. Hitler rose to power 129 years after Napoleon took over the reins in France. Napoleon suffered his first decisive defeat in 1813—Hitler in 1942, again 129 years later. And get this—Napoleon started his downward path in 1814 when he was exiled to Elba—this is 1943, 129 years later. So if Schickelgruber starts on the skids this year, his number will be up next year—for 1944 is 129 years after Waterloo.

IN CONCLUSION—I like that story of the top sergeant with a contingent quartered in an exclusive resort hotel taken over by the army. When the power failed and all the clocks stopped he sent a private out into the night with a flashlight to get the time from the sundial.

Palm Springs High Host to Throngs For "Open House"

Open House Day which was held at the high school on the 16th was a great success.

Exhibits were held in the class rooms during the afternoon and also a tea for the mothers was given at the time.

From all reports, "Junior's Moustache," a play produced by the Oral English Class, stole the show during the evening program in the auditorium. Matt Hennes was the star of the play and his superb acting fitted the part perfectly. Some of the other exhibitions during the evening program were a Panel Discussion, band music, Glee Club singing, and an accordion recital. After the program, parents and their friends visited teachers in their class rooms. The whole day's program gave towns people a chance to visit P. S. H. S. and everyone felt that it was a success.

May We Introduce....

This week—we give you another senior fellow and the author of the other half of this column.

Statistics—He is the ripe age of 17 years, weighs around 150 lbs., stands to a "towering" height of 6' and was born in Los Angeles, Calif., on Oct. 4, 1925.

Nuts about—Women (and if you happen to know our man of the week you'll know that he certainly is "nuts about" women with a capital W). In the women category he seems to prefer brunettes, short and sweet. He's pretty crazy about his "little Hot rod" (or car).

Dislikes — Cauliflower, catty women (as have 9 out of 10 boys this column has interviewed so far—) and school (I guess it's safe to print that last dislike as the lad's a senior).

Nickname—Just simply "Rog" spelled with an "R".

Pals with—Herb Lienau, Bill Gilbert and Al Adolph.

Love life—This type of thing seems to be Rog's specialty—and how! In answer to this question he answered, "Anybody and everybody" which is no exaggeration.

Now we favorite-ize — Foods, carrots, spinach (he and Popeye) and Spanish noodles; Sport, football; Pastime, seeing movies and working at The Desert Sun; Record "A String of Pearls" by Glenn Miller; Band, Glenn Miller.

Characteristics — "Wolfing" around all the time. Incidentally readers, Rog was recently voted in a student to student contest "Champaigne Wolf-er" of '43. Quite a title, isn't it?

Wants to meet—That funny little animated guy with carrots on the brain, "Bugs" Bunny.

Remarks—A nice guy with just about the happiest disposition of anyone at P. S. H. S. He smiles more than any fellow you ever saw.

May we introduce — Roger Braniger.

—MARTI ROBINSON

In this half of the column this week, we introduce another Senior girl. Age 18, weight, 120, height, 5'4½", Brown hair (except in front) and brown eyes.

Sleeping (who doesn't), eating, (chicken, chocolate cake, toasted cheese sandwiches, chocolate malts in particular). "Old Black Magic," and "I'll Never Smile Again," Glenn Miller, dancing, tennis and gym are what "Dutt," (her nickname) is nuts about.

The few things that she doesn't like are conceited men and school (who doesn't???)

Her love-life seems to be a mystery but her sidekick, Gloria Flavin, is in on the ground floor. See her.

She also would like to meet Bob Hope.

Her pals are Gloria (who we've mentioned before, Caroline, Polly, Jeanne and the rest of the G. G.'s.

May we introduce, Nancy Duttenhofer, better known as Nan.

Faculty Member Again Scores With Product of Pen

BY RICHARD HEISE

"She dood it again!" Yes, Mrs. Martin, or Robert Benchley, Jr., as she will be called from now on, has again broken into the literary world by writing "Spring Fever of a Pedagogue." In fact she did better than merely write it. She sent the article in and it is being published in the magazine, The Clearing House.

The best description of Mrs. Martin's latest brain child, or, as she would put it "emotional explosion," is given by the editor of the magazine.

To quote him: "Here Mrs. Martin offers a 'confession story' about one of her bad days. Almost every teacher has them at one time or another. In fact, a lot goes on in a teacher's mind on matters connected with his job—and it seldom gets into print. Possibly some of it is unprintable! While most of our articles necessarily deal with methods, courses, administration, and such objective topics, we are always interested in considering manuscripts dealing with the human side of teaching. Let us decide what is printable!"

That is an editor's opinion of Mrs. Martin's work, and he knows what he is talking about. Mrs. Martin has introduced something new to something old.

Congratulations, Mrs. Martin. You have brought honor to Palm Springs high school twice, and we hope you will do it again. Here's wishing you all the luck in the "literary world."

Vacation Is Short But High School Finds Compensation

While students from surrounding California high schools are observing the week of April 19 to 26 as a Spring vacation, the student body of P. S. H. S. diligently toil over their lessons and persevere in the warm desert air. Because Palm Springs high is running on the minimum daily required schedule, there is little time to observe a vacation.

Good Friday, April 23, will be observed this year because there is to be no Desert Circus. In previous years all Palm Springs schools were closed on Desert Circus Day.

The official 1942-43 school year at Palm Springs high will be terminated on May 28, which is almost a month sooner than the majority of schools.

The next to the last grading period ended on Friday, April 16, and report cards will be distributed some time next week. Previously grade reports were given out the following Friday after the grade period ended, but due to additional business and many complications the report cards will be delayed this time.

Roll of Honor Is Put on Display at Palm Springs High

On exhibit in the main office at P. S. H. S. is an honor roll bearing the names of students and faculty members who are now in the service of "Uncle Sam." This record is written in a beautiful spencerian style of writing by Mr. Max Vaucher. This is just another masterpiece of Mr. Vaucher's handiwork. He was also penman of the Student Body Constitution which graces the wall of the office.

Among those who have more recently entered the service are: Leonard Bryant, U. S. N.; Ralph Gilmore, U. S. N.; Ralph Gray, U. S. N.; Morris Richardson, U. S. N.; Lee Gilbert, U. S. A. A. C.; Robert Guyer, U. S. C. G. There are many more too numerous to mention.

Palm Springs students and faculty are immensely proud of this honor roll, and they thank Mr. Vaucher for such an artistic bit of work.

Attractive Mrs. Speed Post is in Palm Springs, stopping at the Desert Inn, for a vacation in the sunshine.

Marlborough Girls Victors in Tennis Tournament Here

Palm Springs high school girls' tennis team played their first tennis tournament of the year Tuesday afternoon at Palm Springs Tennis club, with the team from Marlborough as opponents. The girls are spending Easter vacation at Smoke Tree Ranch. Both teams had good rooting sections, which always adds to the fun and excitement of a game.

The line-up for the teams were as follows: Marlborough—Janet Thompson, 1st singles, Mary Griffin, 2nd singles, Carolyn Ghust and Lynly Wood, 1st doubles, Charlotte Liebig and Barbara Davis, 2nd doubles. Palm Springs—Carolyn Purcell, 1st singles; Jeanne Martineau, 2nd singles; Donna Crockett and Helen Williams, 1st doubles, and Jimmie Rogers and Nan Duttenhofer 2nd doubles.

Marlborough was victorious, with Palm Springs winning only first singles which Carolyn Purcell won 6-4. Other games were: 2nd singles, 6-4; 1st doubles, 6-2; 2nd doubles, 6-2.

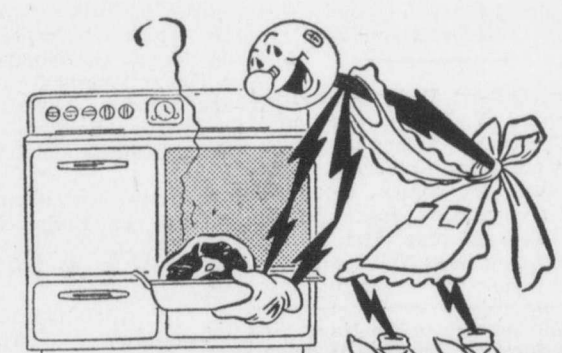

Thank You Kindly! Say Students for Year's Good Times

BY MARTHA McCARN

Even though the necessities of life have been rationed this year, P. S. H. S. students will agree that one necessity, namely, their supply of fun, has not been curtailed.

In reviewing all the fun that has been had, we were aware of the fact that some generous P. S. citizens have been responsible for many of our good times. We would like to thank the Austin McManus's, Travis Rogers, Margaret Anderson and E. E. Hoppe who have helped to make many of our entertainments successful, socially and financially.

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Singer of Los Angeles are vacationing at the Desert Inn.

...to get the most out of your ELECTRIC Home Equipment

"NOLA, WILDA or MARIAN"

With rationing, canning, and extra wartime duties on your already busy list, you are confronted, more than ever before, with the problem of how to save time, conserve energy, and make a dollar go as far as it used to.

Your family menus are another problem—how to make better dishes for less—make foods go farther—and how to save the more important vitamins and minerals that keep up health and morale.

If you have an electric range, or refrigerator, or other electric servants, now is the time of all times to make them serve you at their best. That's where Nola, Wilda, or Marian—the three home economists of this company—can help you.

Their services are another important feature of this company's constant program to serve you well at all times.

NOLA, WILDA AND MARIAN Are Your Willing Home Helpers:

These three, capable, home specialists know their cooking as well as all types of electric home equipment. They show you how to get the best and most economical service out of your electric home appliances; supply tested cooking recipes; help the busy wartime homemaker to conserve time and energy. Call your local District Manager whenever you need their help.

This Issue Comes Without Benefit Of Faculty Help

The report is sometimes heard that students do not prepare the copy which appears under Smoke Signals, without considerable aid from the faculty. It was decided that this edition of Smoke Signals be prepared exclusively by students of the high school journalism class and without benefit of faculty editing.

Principal E. E. Oertel, who instructs the class in journalism attended the Hollywood Conference of Secondary Principals on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, and he requested specifically that the journalism class have this opportunity to show what they can do "on their own." He asked the student editor, Artie Lee Butler, to be responsible for all editing and rewriting. The only assistance given students for the preparation of copy was some help from the office in typing copy.

C. K. Steele Family Visiting in Village

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Steele and daughter, Thais, of Los Angeles, are spending their Easter vacation with Mrs. Steele's mother, Mrs. Jean Dillon, at the Green Gables.

Mr. Steele is director of the bureau of assessments for the city of Los Angeles as well as director of the speaker's bureau of the Civilian Defense council there.

Shirley Temple returned to Palm Springs this week for an Easter vacation and to attend the Sunrise Service on the hillside back of the Desert Inn next Sunday morning.

Speech Students Special Guests at Club Meeting Here

Accepting the invitation extended by Mrs. Ralph Clock, president of the Woman's club, students of speech at P. S. H. S. attended the final meeting of the Palm Springs Woman's Club, Monday afternoon, April 20.

The program was of special interest to them for two main reasons. First, the distinguished speaker, Mrs. Ruth Cornell Fuller gave a dramatic review of the best-seller "Mrs. Parkington," by Louis Bromfield. Second, because Bill Gilbert, winner of the local zone and district Lions' Club Speech Contest, gave his speech on "After the War—What?" for the members of the club.

Those present at the meeting were: Jeanne Martineau, Elsa Kofeldt, Carolyn Purcell, Bob Roy, Bettie Willard, Bill Gilbert, Jack Hoover and Clarence Nicholson.

Effect of War on Power Co. Service Explained in Ads

Francis F. Crocker, district manager of the California Electric Power company, states that his company is preparing a series of advertisements, the first of which is published in this issue, designed to give the company's customers the fullest possible information on the conditions of service by its representatives as affected by the war.

They will appear over a period of several months, the first telling how the housewives of the territory served by the company may get the most out of their electric home equipment by consultation with its home economists.

MORE TO COME

"Everyone is beginning to realize that new limitations will continue to be placed upon us in our efforts to bring about a successful conclusion in this war," said Crocker. "Important government rules have been made that affect electric service. Uncle Sam is seeking to protect all industries essential in the prosecution of the war and all of us are anxious to cooperate."

"The California Electric Power company is heavily engaged in service to army camps and war industries. At the same time it realizes its obligations and responsibilities to its domestic customers, who are also engaged in activities that must be kept going if we are to maintain our morale and defeat the common foe. In this our interests are mutual and it is the purpose of the power company to give all of the information it possibly can to indicate how every citizen in the territory it serves may be helpful if he is fully informed about the services we are prepared to furnish."

TO SHOW SERVICE

"In the advertisements there will be pictures of typical company employees engaged in different types of service and descriptions of their work and how they may be made available for those who need their expert advice. These people will represent types of employees located in various districts and available through our offices for advice and services as far as present conditions will allow."

"We believe that the public in general will appreciate what we are trying to do and will be glad to cooperate, as they have in the past."

Officials Elected By Village Rotary For Coming Season

Newly elected officers of the Palm Springs Rotary club will probably be installed late in May although the club's year does not begin until July 1, Secretary Newton S. Hotchkiss, said this week.

The club's annual election was held last week and resulted in the election of Harry E. "Pat" Patterson as president, Dr. Henry S. Reid as vice president, and Mr. Hotchkiss as secretary.

Committees and appointive officials of the club will be announced after President Patterson takes over the gavel.

Home-Coming Party Welcomes Husband From Eastern Tour

Mrs. William Malouf was hostess one day last week at a home-coming party given in honor of Mr. Malouf, who has been in New York City and Washington, D. C., most of the winter but who hopes to enjoy the remainder of the season here.

Guests at the delightful affair at the Malouf home in Las Palmas estates were Miss Esther Nassour, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Radford and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Malouf, house guests at the estate, and Mrs. Ona Brown, Mrs. Jaqueline Ames, Mrs. Doris Dawson, Mrs. Anita Walton, Miss Virginia Henry, Col. and Mrs. C. Oliver, Captain and Mrs. William McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kirk, Captain Charles Wood, Captain Frank Brick, Captain Bill Smith, Jr., Loren Holmwood.

Guest at the home of Mrs. Lois Lux this week is Miss Julia Johnston from Pasadena. She is here visiting her sister, Miss Jean Johnston, assistant to Dr. Macartney at the Community Church.

The Desert Sun—7

Cathedral City

W. R. HILLERY

Only in event of another substantial shower and that within a matter of a week or two will the display of wild flowers appear better than they are now. Without the rain mentioned, the chances are they will begin to wither within two weeks. In my daily trips between Cathedral City and Palm Springs, I have noted the spread of flowers until now it is well worth anyone's time to drive out to see them. Most A books will allow this short trip.

I don't want to be cynical about all the advertising we give to the desert wild flowers but in the fourteen years I have spent here the breath-taking carpet of beauty that does visit the desert came only twice. Other years are similar or better than what we have now and I have seen years in which the crop was almost a total failure. Then we had the freak year about three seasons ago when we had the September floods and the desert was carpeted with flowers soon after and after their allotted time faded out to reappear for a second crop about this time the following spring.

But, please, you newcomers. Don't pick the flowers. It isn't the fact that you are subject to a quite heavy fine for violation of a law against gathering desert flowers and shrubs, but your own good sense tells you that for generations to come people will enjoy the wild flowers if they are left alone.

Technical Sergeant Richard Craig was home visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Craig this week. Richard looks very well and enjoys his coast artillery duties. I asked about brother Stanley and he tells us he was last heard from in the West Indies where he is a navy aviation gunner.

Mrs. Kathleen Naef is back in the village and it took a Palm Springs lady to tell me I had erred in referring to Kathleen's child as a girl when it is a boy. Excuse, please. I understand the burns to the child are responding to treatment and it is well on the way to recovery.

While I am eating crow, I may as well apologize to Mrs. Ann Reilly right now for not mentioning her name as a member of the local Red Cross committee that made the recent very successful drive in this area. When I write these notes, it's generally around 6 a. m. Thursday morning and if there is any additional information I need, where am I going to get it?

One of the very direct contacts that Cathedral City has with Palm Springs is through the California Electric Power Company's employees, Francis F. Crocker is a frequent caller and enters into our community problems and there is the irrepressible Frank Doro and equally helpful Elly Windhurst, with rather quiet Paul Campbell. We meet a few of the others occasionally. Well, this time the spotlight centers on Paul for on last Saturday night Donna Mae got a little sister, Pauline Margaret, born at Loma Linda. Paul was stopped by the highway police in Banning for no A book could countenance the speed at which he was driving with Mrs. Campbell to the hospital. With their mission known, they were waved on their way. Mother and daughter are doing nicely and I think the practice of giving cigars is an excellent one.

We haven't seen Raymond Cree since his return from the hospital but we want to take this opportunity to express our pleasure that he is home and we hope the trip was entirely successful.

E. J. Wheeler and family, who operate the Totem Pole Cafe, are able to look less worried this week and about the whole town here that think at all are relieved to know that the cafe will remain open so long as business warrants. We certainly don't want to see him close up. E. J. says that people will have to get used to smaller portions and less variety but the board is allotting him enough to operate on.

We have a present population that runs about 85% army families and within the next few weeks it will probably creep closer to the 100% mark. We do need wheels almost as much as we need utilities. But, Bill Lippman, I often think of you and what you are doing for our country. One of the toughest spots that falls to the lot of any volunteer.

How many old-timers remember Mrs. Dolph Reeves and her daughter, Wanda, and son, Bill, who visited here ten years ago with the George G. Allens? Miss Wanda stayed all winter and regained her health here. Mrs. Reeves and her daughter, now Mrs. "Bud" Fisher, wife of Dr. Fisher who is an army doctor serving in Alaska, have spent a few weeks on the desert before leaving this week for their Oregon homes.

James W. Kyle says the ends justifies any typographical errors and that neither he nor Mrs. Kyle mind the fact that Mrs. Kyle was given credit last week for work done on the house numbering and street naming committees.

At the special meeting called Monday night, names for our streets were submitted and approved by those present which was as representative as we ever get for any community purpose. Likewise discussion was had on the type and number of street sign posts that are needed here. The committee was continued with instructions to continue their work with the county.

As long as such active volunteers as Mrs. Marie Ide and Jas. W. Kyle work for our local free library it will prosper in the sense of giving something beneficial to the community. Recently they secured the loan of an extra set of 32 volumes of Americana Encyclopedias from the Palm Springs Public Library which is a most valuable reference set. Other books have been donated as well as purchased.

Young Floyd Musselman, who lived here for a number of years, is spending his Easter vacation on the desert, visiting his old school mates who are old only in the sense of several years standing.

CLUB MEETS

The Cathedral City Woman's Club met Wednesday, April 21, at the home of Mrs. Edna Laas with the president, Mrs. Kathleen Naef presiding. Mrs. Carrie Osburn gave a very fine report of the Annual Installation of Officers which was celebrated with a luncheon at the popular Totem Pole Cafe.

Plans are being made by the club to beautify Cathedral City by planting more trees in the area where the Friendship Palm was planted several years ago. The club has set aside the second week of November as an annual clean-up week and urges all citizens and the Chamber of Commerce to cooperate.

NEED CLOTHES

Mrs. Mary Wolseth spoke on the need of clubs becoming interested in the Coachella Valley Children's Community Health Fund. The club voted to cooperate by saving clothes and other articles. These articles may be left at the Standard Oil Station where Mr. Gould will turn them in to Mrs. Wolseth.

The next meeting of the Club will be next fall, November 17. A breakfast at the Grace Early Date Ranch will commence activities for next season.

Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Florine Keogh.

The singing of "God Bless America" by the club ended the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Starret (he's the Western star) are spending several days at The Desert Inn.

Point Values on Frozen Vegetables and Fruits and on All Rationed Soups, Cut Sharply by OPA to Help in Moving Stock

Point values of all frozen fruits and vegetables, and of all rationed soups—canned, bottled, dried and dehydrated—were reduced sharply at midnight Thursday. At the same time blackeyed peas (sometimes known as blackeyed beans or cow peas) were "ration-free," and may now be bought and sold without exchanging points.

Point values of frozen foods were cut more sharply in the commercial container sizes (2 to 10 pounds) than in the smaller domestic sizes, a move designated to restore a more normal flow of such products to hotels, restaurants, hospitals and other large users. Housewives as well as institutional users may purchase the larger sizes, but ordinarily buy smaller containers.

POINT VALUES

The new and old point values of popular domestic container sizes for typical items in this group follow:—

Frozen fruits of all kinds—(16 oz.) old 13, new, 6; Baked beans, (16-oz.) old 8, new 4; Peas and all other frozen vegetables, (12-oz.), old 10, new 4.

The point value of all canned and bottled soups is reduced from 8 points a pound to 6 points—except for tomato soup, which is cut in half to 4 points a pound. The basic point value is the same for both household and commercial container sizes.

DRIED SOUPS CUT

The point value of dried and dehydrated soups is cut in half and the number of weight classifications reduced from eight to four, with the point values:—Less than 4 oz., 1; over 4 oz. but less than 8 oz., 2; 8 to 12 oz., 3; 12 to 16 oz., 4.

The same set of conditions that has prompted previous reductions in point values is responsible for the latest cuts—slow sales, and particularly in the case of dehydrated soups; the danger of spoilage with the approach of warm weather.

The commercial container sizes of frozen foods have not been selling in normal volume and supplies of these items have been "backing up" in trade channels. As a result, considerable storage space in some areas is now filled with last year's frozen foods, pack, and OPA is eager to move it out in order to make way for this year's pack.

Shirley Temple, spending another birthday at The Desert Inn as usual, celebrated Friday evening with cake and candles.

Restaurants, Cafes Must File Menus With Price Board

Owners of restaurants and other eating and drinking establishments in Palm Springs and this area were reminded today by William A. Lippman of the local Price and Rationing Board to file immediately copies of every menu or price list in use during the period April 4 to April 10.

"If you own or operate a restaurant, hotel, cafe, dining car, bar, delicatessen, soda fountain, catering business or any other eating or drinking place," stated Mr. Lippman, "it is your direct responsibility to file these lists with your local board."

REQUIREMENTS SIMPLE

The filing requirements are very simple. A menu, bill of fare, or price list for all meals served during the period of April 4 to April 10 must be signed and filed with the War Price and Rationing Board not later than May 1.

A copy of each menu or price list is to be retained by the establishment. If the menus do not show all the food items, meals or beverages offered during the specified period, a supplementary price list must be prepared and submitted.

MUST MAKE LIST

"In the event that eating and drinking establishments do not use menus," continued Lippman, "A price list containing every food item, meal and beverage offered during the seven day period must be prepared and submitted to the War Price and Rationing Board before May 1.

A filing of menus or prices of foods served during the seven day period from April 4 to April 10 is the first step of an OPA order designed to bring under price control the costs of "eating out."

Marcus Caro Goes Into Army, Starts Training Tuesday

Marcus Caro, popular Village restaurant and owner and operator of Marcus' cafe, Tuesday of this week went to Los Angeles for induction into the U. S. army.

He returned Wednesday for the customary week's furlough before starting training.

He will report at Fort MacArthur next Tuesday to start his army career.

During his absence, Mrs. Caro will manage the popular cafe. Mexican dishes, however, will be discontinued for the summer months. But all of the other features and service of the cafe will be maintained.

Marcus this week said he would like to tell all of his many friends and patrons personally how much he appreciated their friendship and patronage but couldn't possibly see all of them.

"But they know — I'm very grateful to them and hope to see them when this war is over. In the meantime, Vi will see that they get good food."

Name Lloyd Simon New President Of Masonic Club

Lloyd Simon was elected president; Frank V. Shannon, vice-president, and W. R. Hillery, secretary-treasurer, of the Masonic Luncheon Club, at a meeting at the Desert Inn Tuesday noon.

President Guy Pinney presided at the meeting, and he made a stirring speech on Masonry, which he said was the cradle of Democracy. He recounted the history of the Masonic order, pointing out that the founders of this country, George Washington, the other leaders of the American Revolution, the signers of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution, the early presidents, were all Masons. They were imbued with the spirit of liberty, justice and equal rights as taught by Masonry down through the centuries.

Other speakers who spoke on the same subject and urged the members to keep those principles alive were Bill Hay, noted radio commentator, Francis Crocker, Dr. J. R. Macartney, Harry Hanbury and Arthur Bailey.

Colonel A. B. Jones, commanding officer of Torney Hospital, invited the Masons to visit the hospital and told of the work that is being done there.

The Masons also expressed the hope that it will be possible to build their Masonic Temple as soon as the war is over, on the lot north of the El Paseo Building, purchased by the club a year ago.

Ferrying Division Soft-Ballers Take Game in Hot Rally

A story book finish became a reality Wednesday night at the Palm Springs Field Club, when the post soft ball team of the Ferrying Division upset the crack Torney Hospital sluggers 2 to 1.

It was a tall, lanky private, Alexander Serkowski, who dropped a fast moving fly to allow the Torney club their one run, in the first half of the last inning. . . and it was this same determined lad who stepped up to the plate with two men out, two men on base and two strikes against him to clout the ball out of the park, scoring two runs and snagging the old ball game for the flyers.

Outstanding was the pitching of Sergeant Cartwright of the Ferrying Division and Pfc. John Leslie of Torney as the game went scoreless until the fireworks in the final seventh.

This evens up the series, Torney winning the first game, 3-2. The same teams square off again next week.

Impressive Rites Conducted by Jewry At Coachella Club

One of the most impressive ceremonies in the desert area in some time was the Passover observance at Coachella this week when Hebrew people of this section and scores of soldiers from Camp Young met at the Woman's club house there for the ritual conducted by Rabbi Gordon, acting Jewish chaplain for desert forces.

Women of the Coachella club prepared and served the viands connected with the Sedar service. Cantor was Dan Platin of Palm Springs.

In addition to the 150 assembled at Coachella, the Jewish Welfare league found transportation for 700 more Jewish servicemen who wished to attend the ritual at Temple Emmanuel, Los Angeles.
